

St. Croix International Quilt Guild
Business Meeting November 18, 2015

President Sue McIver called the meeting to order at 6:01 PM.

The meeting began with each person introducing herself and answering the question: Do you have anything you use or hang in your home made by another Guild Member that you enjoy? There were 33 in attendance including guest: Harriet McKay.

Jane read the minutes which were accepted as read on motion by Lynda Duplissea and seconded by Judy Clark.

Sue McIver gave the Treasurer's report. Proceeds from sales at craft show on Nov 7: $259. Over $300 in raffle tickets were also sold at the fair. Balance in account: $2770.18

Bring to the Christmas party paper towel to go to Sarah's House.

Lynda Duplissea reported for Mary Louise that we will be doing the Passamaquoddy Trails quilt at the January 2 Saturday workshop. Supply list is on the website.

No Wednesday workshops until April. Liz Trouant reported that 12 people attended the workshop to make candle cradles.

Joline reported a total of 73 members, about the same as last year.

Lynda Duplissea reported that the raffle quilt is now at the Wool Emporium in St. Stephen. As soon as the photograph of the quilt is taken, the posters will go to press.

Sue will solicit volunteers to do the 2-minutes tips in 2016 by email.

Lynda Duplissea reported that Hopes and Dreams (batting producer) is having a challenge to raise awareness of ALS. See Lynda if you are interested.

Sue McIver did a 2-minute tip: gather a hand towel and stitch it to a pot holder to make a hand towel that hangs on the oven door.

Julie Jordan did a program on Ricky Tims Convergence.

Fabric draw won by Sue McIver.

Seventeen members showed their work at Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton
