

St. Croix International Quilt Guild
Business Meeting July 15, 2015

Meeting called to order by President Sue McIver at 6:00 PM.

The meeting opened with a presentation of 16 quilts to Downeast Hospice through Barbara Barnett's representative, Linda Gralinski. Linda spoke to how meaningful the quilts are to hospice clients.

During roll call, each attendant identified herself and said what is her favorite thread to use.

Jane Eaton read the minutes which were accepted as read.

Sue McIver read the treasurer's report showing a balance of $1967.65.

Mary Louise Peters reported on the Itty Bitty Blocks which, for August, are boats. Mary Louise entered a contest for extra blocks and won. She will offer those to anyone who comes to the next meeting with their July and August blocks.

Sue Dible spoke about a workshop on the first Saturday in August when she will teach how to make quilt as you go string quilt.

September 12 will be the studio tour which is held in alternate years. Five members of the guild will open their "studios" for the tour. See Joline Cook or Bonnie Hunter if you have questions.

Motion by Anita, second by Brenda to give $100 for door prizes for the tour.

Patty Haganaars has taken on the fund raising responsibilities.

Joline has the forms for renewing membership.

Lynda Duplissea sent the hospice presentation last month to the local papers and to the Patchwork Press. Deadline for Sept issue of Patchwork Press is August 10 so get information to Lynda before that date.

Lynda Coffey will do a workshop on wearable art on August 5.

Liz Trouant showed a little pocket she made to attach to her machine to hold the pocket of the needle in use in the machine. She also puts a note in the pocket with the date she put the needle in. Liz also saves the plastic cases the needles come in to use for disposal of old needles

Sue Martell demonstrated baffling.

Nine members showed their work at Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton
