

St. Croix International Quilt Guild
Business Meeting
January 20, 2016

President Sue McIver called the meeting to order at 6:01 PM. Thirty-five people attended. During roll call each attendant answered the question: “What new quilting gadget or supplies did you get for Christmas that we may all need?” Welcome to guests Elma Mosher and Kathy Dean. Welcome back Winnie Johnson and Kathy Bishop.

Jane read the minutes of the November meeting which were accepted as read on motion by Anita Johnson.

Mary Ann O’Brien gave the treasurer’s report.

Mary Louise:

Block of the Month—Tinner Bring to the February meeting a tin containing one yard of fabric (preferably a print with multiple colors). The tins travel from quilter to quilter each month. The quilter makes another 12 inch block to add to the tin. The originator will not see what is in her can until the end of the year. There seemed to be enough interest to get at least 12 to participate.

Saturday workshops—see website

Wednesday workshops were outlined by Sue McIver.

Seventy-four members reported by Membership Committee chair, Joline Cook.

Lynda Duplissea reported that the posters and bookmarks for the show are at the printer. All vendors for the show are confirmed and paid. For the show we will be doing a challenge for Quilts for Valor. Each Quilt for Valor earns its donor a ticket for prizes.

Lap quilts for hospice should be given to Marlene for quilting. If you supply the backing, it should be sewn together when delivered for quilting. Marlene will charge extra to do that sewing.

Sue McIver won the fabric draw.

Twenty people showed their work at Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton, Secretary
