

St. Croix International Quilt Guild
Business Meeting April 20, 2016

President Sue McIver called the meeting to order at 6:02 PM. Guest Susan Greenlaw from St. Stephen. Roll call: why did you begin to quilt? There were 25 people in attendance.

Jane Eaton read the minutes of the March 16, 2016 meeting. The minutes were accepted as read.

Mary Ann O'Brien reported a balance in the treasury of $2646.94. Hospice moneys are low.

Mary Louise moved the tinnens along. She reviewed upcoming Saturday workshops.

Sue McIver reported that Bev McAdams has decided to remain in the South but hopes to be back to visit in September when the quilt show takes place. Anita Johnson has stepped up to fill Bev's office but was unable to attend tonight. Sue reviewed the Wednesday workshops for Anita.

See the website for details on workshops.

Bonnie reported that the Nominating committee is all set to report next month

Joline reported the membership remains at 76.

In the absence of Lynda Duplissea there is no report from Publicity or the Show.

New business: Area 5 Spring meeting May 25 in East Machias. See website for details.

We need more volunteers for teaching workshops, programs and tips.

Please call if you cannot attend a workshop to save the instructor a waste of time.

Mary Ann is overseeing the sale of raffle tickets for a quilt at the state show. Every member needs to pick up tickets. Those who have picked up tickets need to return their money.

Mary Ann showed how to use a Supercuts ruler to cut diamonds and octagons.

Sue recommended Internet resources for new quilters: Facebook, Youtube, Etsy, Amazon (for supplies), Quilters' Cache, Jenome Corner, Quilt along with Pat Stalone, Quilters of Faith, and others. She will supply a list on line when her computer is back in working order.

Eight members showed their work at Show and Tell.

Refreshments were provided by Maxine Palmeter and Pauline Ward.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton, Secretary
