

St Croix International Quilt Guild Business Meeting
Monday March 20, 2017
First Congregational Church of Calais, Maine

February meeting cancelled due to weather. March meeting postponed to today because of weather.

Meeting called to order at 5 PM. At roll call people were asked to tell if they do Show and Tell and if not, why not? There were 22 in attendance.

Maxine Palmeter made a motion to accept the minutes as read by Jane Eaton. Jude Clark seconded and motion passed.

Mary Ann O'Brien gave the treasurer's report.

See website for upcoming workshops as organized by Joline Cook and Anita Johnson.

Joline reported membership of 77.

Wanda reported 25 hospice quilts. Please put a label on the quilt so the recipient knows whom to thank. Recipients want to thank the maker. Mary Ann will get some labels printed off to distribute. If you need one, contact Wanda or Mary Ann.

Get your books of raffle tickets for the Pine State raffle quilt from Mary Ann.

Motion by Jude Clark that the guild pay the church $100 a month until we no longer need to use the church. Seconded by Bonnie. Motion passed.

At the May meeting there will be a display of ideas for the 2018 raffle quilt and the members will vote for their choice.

In April we will have a nominating committee established to find replacements for officers whose terms are ending. Anita, as second vice president, Jane as secretary will be stepping down. Sue McIver, president, has not yet decided if she wants to serve another term.

The tinnerns were returned to their owners who opened them and displayed what was inside for everyone to see.

Sue McIver did the 2 minute tip. Jane Eaton presented a program "Help! I won these blocks and they are all different sizes," with ideas about how to set blocks of different dimensions into a quilt.

Nine members shared their work at Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted, Jane Eaton, Secretary
