

St. Croix International Quilt Guild

Business Meeting November 15, 2017

President Sue Mclver called the meeting to order at 6:10 PM. At roll call we heard what everyone is asking Santa for Christmas. There were over 30 people present.

Motion by Jude Clark and second by Marlene Wilbur to accept the minutes of the October meeting as read by Jane Eaton.

Jolene Cook spoke about upcoming Saturday workshops and showed a sample of the quilt to be made for hospice in January. February will be the tea. See website for more information and the Facebook page. Jude Clark spoke about the Wednesday workshops. December will be the Christmas party. Jan, Feb and March workshops will be from 1 to 3. See website and/or Facebook.

Membership count is 68, reported Joline Cook.

Mary Ann reported the things are lining up for the Christmas party, committee members working hard. She asked for door prizes.

As treasurer, Mary Ann reported a balance of $3,112.

Julie Jordan reported for the quilt show. First regular meeting of committee members will be in February. Bonnie Hunter will be showcased at the show with her work and her books. Pine Tree has an exhibit which the committee is considering. The committee would like to return to viewers' choice awards for Best of Show, for wall hanging, for guild challenge, and for original design.

For the 2-minute tip Jude Clark showed a number of products that she has found useful, eg using plastic containers to hold cut blocks of certain sizes and a product called "Sewer's Edge." Also Sue Mclver showed how to do a disappearing Pinwheel.

Maxine Palmeter won the fabric draw.

Eleven people showed their work at Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton
