

St. Croix International Quilt Guild Business meeting June 20, 2018

Meeting called to order at 6:04 PM by President Sue McIver. Welcome back to snow birds! During roll call, members offered comments about what they like best about quilting.

Minutes were accepted as read. Mary Ann O'Brien, Treasurer, reported on our financial situation.

Joline Cook and Jude Clark presented the schedule of Saturday and Wednesday workshops. See the website for details. No workshop on Wednesday, July 4.

Joline: Membership stands at 72.

Lynda Duplissea reported for Publicity

Wanda reported on hospice quilts. She will not save the quilts for the show because they are needed by the two hospice programs.

Mary Ann and Joline reported on the Area 5 meeting in Ellsworth.

Sue Martell reported an opportunity to display the raffle quilt and sell tickets at the Grand Lake Stream Festival the end of July. If any guild member is willing to help, the GLS organizers will make a donation to the guild. Bonnie Hunter will be displaying her quilt and her new book. Talk to Sue about what you might be interested in.

Mary Louise reported that this will be the last exchange of tinnets.

Lubec quilt show on June 23.

No objection to the slate of officers reported by the Nominating Committee so Bonnie Hunter was elected as president and Joanne Spencer for 1st Vice President and Mary Ann O'Brien is staying on as treasurer.

Outgoing president, Sue McIver, presented many members with gifts and thanks.

Sue Martel and Julie Jordan demonstrated the making of a quilt rack from PVC pipes.

Joline Cook introduced the group to a Fons and Porter pattern called "Friendship Ring" using a 60 degree ruler.

Marlene won the fabric drawing.

Eight members showed their work at Show and Tell.
