

St Croix International Quilt Guild
Aug.18, 2010
MEETING MINUTES

Meeting was called to order with 22 members and 1 guest present. Guest was past member Jerry Reynolds. Introductions were held.

Minutes of the July meeting were read. Moved by Mary Ann they be accepted, seconded by Liz T.

Treasurer's report was read by Secretary in absence of Dana. Balance brought forward: $4040.85

Debits: cheque # 392--Maine Quilt raffle tickets-$60.00, #393--Carlene Coro lap robes-$56.00, #394--Bonnie Hunter for paper for show registration-$7.15, #395--Brisk Wind Farm storage-$180.00 Total $303.15

Credits: raffle tickets-Leona--$43.00, fabric/pins--$10.00, membership renewals--$96.00, Oct. retreat deposits--$25.00, Pembroke contest--$22.17, PTQG raffle tickets- - $60.00, quilt show vendors--$75.00 Total credits--$331.17 Balance at present--$4068.87 Lynda moved acceptance of this report, seconded by Jane E.

Jolene reported on the status of the workshops. She will be doing the Quilt Storage Roll in Sept. There is a sign-up sheet out. Due to conflicts in scheduling, the cancer quilt has been cancelled and will be rescheduled at a later date. On Oct. 2&3 members will be going on the retreat, the 6th will be the Quilted Wallet, Nov. 3 is the Swap Sale, the 6th is the Clothesline Bowl, and Dec. 1 will be the Christmas Party. Diane F will report on the Christmas Party at Sept. meeting.

Joanne reported on the workshop done Aug. 14. She had 5 attend and they did end up doing it at the rec. hall.

The demonstration for the Sept. business meeting will be another session with the DVD done by Theresa.

Eva reported on membership. She has a number of renewals to date. She would very much like to give up this job. Mary Ann asked for a volunteer to take over but no one came forth. If anyone will do it, contact her or Eva.

Theresa reported on fund-raising. She will know better what we need to do after the quilt show and will work on ideas then.

Joanne reported on the Quilt show. Bonnie has registration cards ready. Volunteers are needed to sign up for 2 hr. shifts at registration. A sheet will be passed around. Help is also needed with hospitality At Marden's, almost $600.00 worth of tickets were sold on the raffle quilt. There is also a sign-up sheet for helping with the Chinese Auction and for refreshments. Eva said she would be here all day Sat. and would work wherever needed.

Liz needs people to sign up for refreshments for the meeting. Mary Ann and Susan will do Jan. 19, Sharon and Eva in Nov., Liz will do in March, Jane will do in April and Bonnie will help in Oct.

Posters were given out to be placed in various areas.

New Business: Liz will be absent for the Sept meeting so Theresa will take care of the tickets and the tote.

Challenge block is due at the Sept. meeting.

Mary Ann asked about putting a first aid kit in the hall after the incident with Leona's finger She will check with the home about this and also about helping to put a new air conditioner in .

Mary Ann had a letter from the Girl Scouts we gave to. This was delayed reaching us as they were sending it to the old post office box. To date they have done 10 quilts.

The program for the evening was on making a fabric pleater and using it by Lynda C.

Draws were held. Winners were: Fabric--Bonnie H. and Blocks--Sue D.

Fabric for Sept. is Fall print and the block is Double Quartet.

Show and Tell was held with 12 taking part followed by delicious refreshments served by Sue D. and Mary S.

Respectfully submitted,

Lynda Coffey, secretary