July 15: No Wednesday workshop because pot luck in Machias.

August Wednesday workshop is open (see late in minutes).

Business meeting workshops:

June: Sue Dibble will show how to use focus fabrics, novelty fabrics and big print fabrics.

Nominating committee report by Liz Trouant: President: Mary Ann O'Brien; Second VP Sue McIver; Sec Jane Eaton and Linda Coffey

Jen has tickets for the raffle quilt for the state quilt show.

Sign up sheet for quilts for the dialysis center. There are 17 patients there so we would like to have 17 quilts.

Sue McIver volunteered to do a Wednesday workshop on August 5, 2009 on Fat quarter bag.

Hancock County quilters have invited us to the May Area Meeting in Ellsworth on May 27 at 5 PM, potluck at 6 PM, and program with trunk show by Bethany Reynolds. Mary Ann Spearin has the block of the month pattern. The meeting will be held at St. Andrews Lutheran Church. Mary Ann O'Brien is going and has room in her van. Sandra Hill will be driving via Route 1 and also has room.

Red white and blue fabric for June meeting. BOM is a spool pattern using one color family in dark and medium with muslin.

Sandra Hill won the fabric and Dana Bard won the BOM.

Joanne Spencer reported a change in the way of raffling off the breast cancer quilts. The organization that used to do it is not doing it now. The quilts have been given to a chapter of the American Cancer Society in Brewer, ME.

Joanne did the workshop on binding quilts.

Show and Tell.

Thanks to Leona Juranty and Theresa Porter for refreshments.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane M. Eaton, Secretary
